

Audit and Procurement Committee

Audit and Procurement Committee-Developed a Joint Purchasing and Procurement Policy. They also meet annually with the auditor's at the beginning of the audit to voice any concerns or issues they may have or that they would like the auditors to look at and then again at the end of the audit when the report is finalized to review the Comprehensive Annual Financial Report. It would be helpful if the members had some financial background and understood accounting.