APD Leadercast Event Gets Support from Angus King *Independent for US Senate & Former Governor to Speak on Leadership

[Auburn, ME]: The Auburn Police Department is thrilled to announce that Angus King, Independent for US Senate and Former Governor, will be a featured keynote speaker at the upcoming Chick-fil-A Leadercast to benefit the Auburn Police Activities League (PAL).

This day-long leadership training event will be broadcast LIVE on Friday, May 4, 2012 from Atlanta to hundreds of sites across the country, including Auburn. There will be nine internationally-acclaimed leaders speaking from the Atlanta site, including Soledad O'Brien (Anchor and special correspondent for CNN), Tim Tebow (NFL quarterback, Heisman Trophy winner and best-selling author), John Maxwell (Leadership expert & best-selling author) and many more.

Governor King will appear live at the Auburn site to address community and business leaders during a special lunchtime session. The theme of this year's Leadercast is the power of choice. King will share insights to help leaders empower and equip others at work, at home and in the community through the choices they make.

"We are excited and honored that Governor King will be joining us this year," said Police Chief Phil Crowell. "We are proud to host an event that develops leaders within our community, and Angus King will share his unique perspective on leadership."

Proceeds from this event will benefit the Auburn PAL Center, which is located in the Chestnut Street neighborhood. "The numbers tell us this is an area that needs a special focus," said Crowell. "The Center will provide activities for kids after school and during the summer, not to mention positive interaction with police officers." PAL encourages and develops leadership in youth and fosters communication, understanding, and mutual respect between youth, the community and police.

This event is made possible locally by Auburn PAL; PuroClean of Livermore; Central Maine Community College; Patrons Oxford Insurance; East Auburn Baptist Church; and the Twin City Times.

The Leadercast will be held at the East Auburn Baptist Church (560 Park Avenue) from 8:00am to 4:30pm. Tickets are $99. Conference materials and lunch will be provided.
