CITIZEN ADVISORY COMMITTEE MEETINGS SCHEDULED TO DISCUSS NEW DIRECTION FOR COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT PROGRAM

AUBURN, ME. – Work has begun to set a new direction for the Community Development Program for the next five years. A Citizens Advisory Committee has been appointed by Mayor Jonathan Labonté to assist the Auburn City Council by reviewing and analyzing data on community needs, determining priorities and establishing goals and objectives. The public is invited to participate in the discussion. There will be a 15 minute open session at 5:45pm and another open session at 7:30pm. All meetings at Auburn Hall will be in the Community Room (room 206).
