

City of Auburn, Maine

"Maine's City of Opportunity"

Parks & Recreation Department

Recreation & Special Events Advisory Board
Hasty Community Center
September 11, 2013
6:30 PM

1. Overview of Proposed New Committee Charge by City Council (from Public Services Committee packet)
2. The review of existing recreation programs and special events supported by the City and the planning of revised, supplementary or new programs to meet the present and future needs of the city.
  - a. Staff will overview existing programs/events supported by the City
3. Coordination with volunteer and charitable organizations and those of other governmental units that provide special events or recreation programming in the City.
  - a. Discussion of other organizations providing programming in Auburn that should be invited to join in discussion and framing of recommendations for the City Council
4. Developing recommendations for more efficient use of present facilities and personnel.
  - a. High level overview of planned analysis of athletic facilities in Auburn
5. Improving communication regarding recreational needs
  - a. How could the city best support communication among groups, and between groups and the city/community at large?
6. Investigation for financial assistance and the development of recommendations regarding participation
  - a. What framework might the assessment of financial resources be investigated by the full committee or sub-committees?