RE: Parking around Auburn Public Library and proposed Troy Street / Hampshire Street project

On behalf of the City of Auburn, we would like to have a more comprehensive dialogue on the ongoing efforts by the City to increase parking availability and help pedestrian safety and navigation in the neighborhood around the Library. While some of these efforts have been underway for some time, recent discussions that ensued during the meetings regarding the proposed Troy Street project from The Szanton Company, are creating the need for us to focus on the existing and anticipated parking issues. It is the City’s intention, to identify and study various aspects of parking availability and pedestrian movement with the goal of implementing as many measures as possible in the next 12-18 months. That is the time frame that the Troy Street project will take to go through the process of approvals, arrange financing, and begin construction. (Note that the Troy Street project is at least two years away from occupancy.) Below are several strategies, studies, recommendations and / or options that would help mitigate the parking issues and concerns, and help the City, the Library, and the project all be a viable part of the City of Auburn:

- Implement the recommendations of the collaborative Auburn and Maine DOT’s Heads-Up Pedestrian Safety Program, which includes funding for execution. This would make pedestrian circulation in the downtown easier and safer.
- Add or revise signage for the on-street parking spaces near the Library on Spring Street, Library Avenue, Hampshire Street, and Pleasant Street that makes it clear that evening parking is not time-limited. Making this clearer will enable more on-street parking for evening Library events.
- Inventory existing parking within a quarter mile of the Library and propose expanding on-street parking on Library Avenue between the railroad and Union Street, Pleasant Street north of Hampshire, Spring Street and Railroad Street south of Court. Right now these areas are not striped. Adding clearly striped spaces will define the parking spaces and allow more cars to park in these areas.
- Study traffic calming on Court Street, especially at the intersection of Court Street and Spring Street including but not limited to adding bump-outs at intersections, on-demand pedestrian flashing lights, special cross walk markings and added street lighting as needed. This would be similar to the redesign of Hampshire Street, which is underway, and would encourage pedestrians who need to cross Court Street.
• Study the addition of a new crosswalk from Railroad Street to the north side of Court Street. This would slow down traffic on Court Street and allow easier pedestrian access to the Library from Railroad Street. We understand that this may require extra review and permitting because this section of Court Street is also under DOT jurisdiction.

• Study the parking usage at the lot adjacent to the City Electrical building to see if its parking can be merged with the Library parking to enable more spaces to be striped in a more sensible layout.

• Reach out to other private property owners in the neighborhood to see if there are any other lots in the neighborhood that could be acquired to expand parking.

Our goal is to study these issues and develop a comprehensive approach to expanding parking options and pedestrian access in the downtown, especially in the area near the Library, within the next 12-18 months. The City of Auburn welcomes the opportunity to meet and discuss these ideas in the near future.

RE: Troy Street/Hampshire Street Project Overview

Over the last 6 months, a significant residential project has moved forward, which has the potential to make a significant and positive impact to Auburn’s Downtown. The Economic and Community Development Staff has been working with the Szanton Company, the developer for the proposed Troy Street/Hampshire Street project, to finalize the numerous aspects of the project and is now poised to seek final City approvals. The purpose of this memo is to provide an overview of the project to help Mayor Leveque, the Auburn City Council and the Citizens of Auburn understand the components and value of the project.

Project Summary: The project location is a .5 acre vacant, city owned property with frontages on Union St., Hampshire Street and Troy Street. The project also will include a portion of Troy Street that is planned for discontinuance and along with an adjacent property under contract by the Szanton Company to be acquired from Pan Am Railroad. This residential project is proposed to be four stories tall and will include 53 dwelling units with a mix of 14 market rate and 39 work force housing units. The Szanton Company will be applying for low income housing tax credits through the Maine Housing Authority in February of 2018. The project will provide the following positive impacts:

- The redevelopment of a vacant, City owned property, that is currently yielding $0 in tax revenues
- A $10 million investment into Downtown Auburn
- At least $40,000 a year in tax revenues, even with a TIF agreement
- The introduction of 39 workforce and 14 market rate dwelling units and residents into Downtown
- The workforce housing will provide important housing opportunities to working individuals and families with incomes of between $21,250 and $39,360 depending on family size
- Spurring additional interest in redevelopment and investment in the area
- A project that will complement the Hampshire Street reconstruction project and fit into the character of the surrounding area
- A reduction in city services for Troy Street through a discontinuance that will still maintain public access between Hampshire Street and Library Avenue and create a better, more efficient site plan

Development Process Overview: The Troy Street project has gone through several phases and contains multiple components:

A. Zone Change from General Business (GB) to Traditional Downtown Center (T-5.1). This property, along with other properties in the block contained by Union Street, Hampshire Street, Troy and Library Streets, were rezoned from General Business (GB) to Downtown Traditional Center (T – 5.1) back in September 11, 2017. The T-5.1 zone allows for reduced building setbacks, greater density and better compatibility with the surrounding buildings.

B. Purchase and Sales Agreement – A purchase and sales agreement was approved by the City Council at a special meeting held on August 31, 2017. The executed agreement included the City owned property (Parcel # 240-212) and a section of Troy Street designated to be discontinued.
C. City Financial Support - The City has approved additional incentives that will provide needed support and valuable points for the Low Income Housing Tax Credit (LIHTC) application to the Maine State Housing Authority. This project is competing with another project seeking LIHTC, which is located at 477 Minot Avenue.

- HOME Funds - $110,000 has been approved by City Council (same as 477 Minot Avenue)
- TIF Funding - An existing TIF district is being amended and will provide some property tax relief (50%) for the development over 30 years

D. Discontinuance of Troy Street - Troy Street is nondescript public right of way that serves as a connection between Hampshire Street and Library Avenue. At the onset of discussions with the developer, the discontinuance of Troy Street was discussed as a way to shift the location of the “driveway” in order to create more space for parking to support the project.

- Staff will make a presentation at the December 18, 2017 City Council meeting (public hearing and 1st reading) seeking approval of Order to Discontinue Troy Street and to continue public access between Hampshire Street and Library Avenue.
- Final action on the Discontinuance would take place at the January 8th City Council meeting (Public Hearing and 2nd reading).
- The developer would be responsible for the maintenance and snow removal of the “driveway”, which will continue as a two way, 21 foot wide public access way.

E. Acquisition of Pan Am Properties - Another early discussion item between the City and the developer was the possible acquisition of 2 excess Pan Am railroad right of way parcels that could be utilized for parking. One parcel, directly across from Troy Street has been leased from Pan Am and used as a public parking lot since the 1980’s and the other parcel was the site of warehouse building that was removed many years ago.

- The City Council directed the Staff to make an offer on the 2 parcels back in October. The offer was rejected. The City Council then directed Staff to make a counter offer and include a number of other, smaller Pan Am parcels. Staff is waiting to hear back from Pan Am as of 12/7/17.
- In the meantime, the Szanton Company was able to settle on a higher price for the 2 “parking” parcels and is now under contract to purchase.
- The Staff is comfortable with this arrangement as the project site plan now meets the parking requirement and the City will not have to construct the parking or administrate the leasing of parking spaces with the developer.
- The City Council discussed the possibility of utilizing the excess Pan Am parcels to construct a trail that was proposed back in 2000 but is now deemed not feasible today.

F. Planning Board Approval - The size of the project requires approval by the Planning Board.

- The project will go to the Auburn Planning Board at their December 12th meeting for a Site Plan and Special Exception and Subdivision approval.
- The Planning Board approval will earn valuable points in the project’s application to the Maine Housing Low Income Tax Credit program, which is due in February 2018

G. Project Impacts and Mitigation Steps - Concerns have been raised by the Auburn Public Library and its supporters primarily about available parking for the Library. The City is responding by looking to:

- Implement the recommendations of the collaborative Auburn and Maine DOT’s Heads-Up Pedestrian Safety Program.
- Add or revise signage for the on-street parking spaces near the Library
- Inventory existing parking within a quarter mile of the Library and propose expanding on-street parking and add clearly striped spaces that will define the parking spaces and allow more cars to park in these areas
- Study and implement traffic calming on Court Street especially near the Library
- Reach out to other private property owners in the neighborhood to see if there are any other lots in the neighborhood that could be acquired to expand parking
- Engage the Auburn Public Library and its supporters in an ongoing process to address concerns
