

*Tizz E. H. Crowley
Auburn City Councilor*

*Doreen Christ
Lewiston City Councilor*

Thank you for your support of
National Breast Cancer Awareness Month
October 2012
Auburn – Lewiston

On behalf of Lewiston Mayor Robert Macdonald & Auburn Mayor Jonathan LaBonte
Please join us

Auburn-Lewiston Mayors Breast Cancer Awareness Month Joint Proclamation –

October 1 beginning at 11:45 a.m. Participants will meet at Fountain Park at the corner of Lincoln and Main streets. Community members, survivors and supporters will start a walking processional across Longley Bridge to Auburn Festival Plaza for a brief noontime ceremony. You are encouraged to dress in pink, carry supporting message signs, and balloons. Mayor Macdonald and Mayor LabBonte will sign a joint proclamation in observance of National Breast Cancer Awareness Month in the twin cities.

A public luncheon will follow at Narals Restaurant 34 Court Street. Cost of luncheon buffet, including drink and dessert, is specially priced $7.95. Reservations are strongly recommended- call 344-3201.

Legion Riders Breakfast – September 30 at William J. Rogers American Legion Post 153, 71 South Main Street, Auburn, will host a breakfast to highlight Breast Cancer Awareness Month. Call Dan St. Pierre at 782-1118 for more information.

“Pretty, Pink, or Perennial Plant Exchange” – October 6 from 12-3 in the parking lot across from the Auburn Public Library. The rain location is Grace Lutheran Church on Mount Auburn Avenue in Auburn. The Library Café will donate pink lemonade. The event will be hosted by Bettyann Sheats. For more information contact Ms. Sheats at b.sheats@aol.com.

American Legion Post 153 Auxiliary Vendor’s Day – October 6. A breast cancer awareness booth will be featured at this annual community event, which is free and open to the public. The Auxiliary will distribute free ribbon pins and provide pink refreshments.

“Legal Issues in Health Care Decisions” – October 10 at 6 pm at Naral’s Restaurant Community Room. Judge Joshua Klein-Golden will discuss his personal connection with a few survivors of breast cancer, but will focus on the importance of planning before health issues arises. He will discuss the importance of having a will, living will and power of attorney. He will also share information about guardianships and conservatorships. A question and answer session will follow his presentation. Doors open at 5:30pm. Space is limited, so registration is encouraged. Call 333-6600 ext 1217.

“Legal Issues in Health Care Decisions” – October 19 at 1:30 pm Auburn Public Library the Maggie Trafton Room. Judge Joshua Klein-Golden will discuss his personal connection with a few survivors of breast cancer, but will focus on the importance of planning before health issues arises. He will discuss the importance of having a will, living will and power of attorney. He will also share information about guardianships and conservatorships. A question and answer session will follow his presentation. Doors open at 1:00pm Space is limited, so registration is encouraged. Call 333-6600 ext 1217 to leave a message for Councilor Tizz Crowley.

“Every Ribbon Tells a Story: A Man’s Prospective” – October 29 from 6 p.m. to 8 p.m. in the Maggie Trafton Room at the Auburn Public Library. This panel discussion will feature: general surgeon Gregory D’Augustine, M.D.; breast cancer survivors Alan Stone and Michael Murphy; and breast cancer survivor supporting spouse Mitch Sperry. Doors open at 5:30pm Space is limited, so registration is encouraged. Call 333-6600 ext 1217 to leave a message for Tizz Crowley.

Additional activities in observation of National Breast Cancer Awareness Month include:

Lighting the Auburn City Building in pink during October, which is National Breast Cancer Awareness Month.

A breast cancer awareness promotion/fund-raiser at the New Auburn Social Club, 7 Second Street, Auburn. Funds will benefit breast cancer awareness and education. For more information, call Leroy Walker at 577-2694 or email leroywalker@roadrunner.com

Book displays for adults and children at the Auburn and Lewiston public libraries. Auburn’s Adult display will include “Saving Jack: A Man’s Struggle with Breast Cancer” by Jack Willis.

A breast cancer awareness display at the Auburn City Building

Businesses, including Mama Shukri Plaza, 229 Lisbon Street, Lewiston, will have pink ribbon window displays to promote breast cancer awareness.

Lewiston and Auburn residents are encouraged to install pink lights outside their homes.

Auburn Girl Scouts will have a “Pink” service project.

In addition to the people and organizations already noted, other individuals and businesses have provided financial and in-kind contributions, including: Lake Auburn Watershed Neighborhood Association; Roak the Florist, Lewiston; Auburn Parks and Recreation Department; 84 Court Street Pizza; Stampin’ Up consultant Corinne Saindon of Lewiston; and Jacqueline Bate of Auburn.

Anyone seeking more information on these activities is urged to call: Tizz Crowley at 333-6600, extension 1217, or email her at tcrowley@auburnmaine.gov; or Lewiston City Councilor Doreen Christ at dchrist@lewistonmaine.gov