Auburn Public Library

- The Library’s Development Coordinator met with the Graphic Communications class at CMCC regarding the new logo on Fri., 3/24.
- The Online Auction committee met Mon., 3/27, to discuss the upcoming auction, which will run from June 1st to the 10th. Pledges for items are already being made. We are also looking for sponsors.
- The Library Director attended an MTI workshop on Tue., 3/28. The workshop focused on businesses applying for start-up grants from the National Science Foundation. This workshop dovetails with the work that we are doing through the STEM grant.
- The Library Director and the Head of Children’s Services met with representatives from the Maine State Library and Cornerstones of Science on Weds., 3/29, to get an update on the status of the STEM grant and to help us formulate our grant work plan for the next year.
- The members of the café committee met on Thurs., 3/30, with stakeholders in the City’s teen programs to talk about having teen -based culinary programs oversee the operation of the café. There are a number of possibilities that would bring school and community programs together.
- On Mon., 4/3, the Library will host a special L/A Arts “Artist Days in L/A” program honoring the work of Maine artist Ashley Bryan. Figures of Speech Theatre will conduct a workshop to make shadow puppets. Children in grades 1 through 4 are welcome at 3:30. Please register with the Children’s Room by calling the Library at 333-6640 x 3. The following week at the same time there will be a half-hour introduction to the movie about Ashley Bryan that will premiere at the Film Festival on April 27th. This is appropriate for both adults and children. It will be followed by a short program of readings from Ashley Bryan books.
- Upcoming programs include:
  - KIDS! Family Place Play and Learn! | Friday, April 7, 2017 | 10:00 – 11:15 AM | As part of the Family Place Initiative at the Auburn Public Library, we will be holding a free parenting/playgroup series for parents and their young children ages 1-3. Fridays, April 7, 14, 21 & 28th
Weekly Report
Week Ending March 31, 2017

- Teens! Friday Movie | Friday, April 7, 2017 | 3:00 – 5:00 PM | Teens! Join us in the Androscoggin Community Room on the 1st Friday of each month to relax and enjoy a movie! This program is just for teens, ages 12-18, and will include a snack!
- Kids! LEGO Club | Friday, April 7, 2017 | 4:00 – 5:00 PM | The library will host a monthly LEGO Club for kids ages 5 and up the first Friday of each month. The library will provide the space and the LEGO; kids just need to come with their imaginations. Please be advised there will be small pieces that present a choking hazard. This program is not suitable for very young children. For more information, please call the library at 333-6640 ext.3.
- Your Next Career Move | Monday, April 10, 2017 | 6:30 – 8:00 PM | Ready for a career change but don’t know where to start? This free 2 hour workshop by New Ventures Maine will help point you in the right direction. Christina Davis will cover what to consider when making a career choice, the steps involved in creating a career plan, and the resources available to help you succeed. Register online.
- Charlie Plummer on Lincoln | Tuesday, April 11, 2017 | 2:00 – 3:30 PM | The Lewiston-Auburn Senior College and the Auburn Public Library continues the Curious Minds Series with a seminar by Charlie Plummer on Abraham Lincoln titled “The Man, Humorist, Story-Teller, and Poet.” Plummer will talk about Lincoln’s life from growing up as a child to the man who would eventually become President. A focus of the program will be on the humorous stories Lincoln told and some of the surprising poems he wrote.

Follow the Library on Facebook or link to our website at www.auburnpubliclibrary.org for more information about all of our programs, new books, Library news, and online registration.

IT
➢ This week GFTV had its first videotaping of a show at the new E.L. studio. The show was requested by the COLAC (Coalition Opposing Lewiston Auburn Consolidation) group. Members of the group discussed why they feel that the two cities should not merge. The media arts students at the school are beginning to use the studio and are very excited about their new resource.
➢ Staff spent time editing the show of the Androscoggin Fallen Angels in their first roller derby bout. The event was well attended and they are looking forward to more events soon. The event was videotaped at the Lewiston Armory which is their home base.
➢ Other work included programming, work on the studio, updates to the community bulletin board and IT support tasks.
➢ Staff conducted a GIS training session with the association of Androscoggin County surveyors. The session involved showing them the new Advanced Viewer and the (even newer) tabbed viewer. They were particularly interested in the download capabilities for archived plans, cad files, and historical aerial images. We also reviewed the options for using MapAuburn in the field using the Mobile Explorer app for Apple and Android.
➢ This week we added to the historical aerial photos that are available to download through our MapAuburn Advanced viewers. We now have map layers for 2013, 2013 Infrared, 2006, 2001, and 1998. Download photos are available for 1973, 1961, and 1951. Users can request georeferenced copies of the downloaded photos.
➢ We have added stormwater data to the list of GIS data layers available to the public. We have created a viewer specifically for those utility layers that we make available to the public. Currently, this viewer is distributed on an as-needed basis to contractors working for Auburn.
➢ Auburn’s Staff Utilities viewers were updated this week to use the most recently updated data
