

New Auburn Neighborhood Historic Walking Tour

Tuesday, June 30th

6:00PM-7:30PM

Meet at Rolly's Diner

Join Auburn Economic Development Specialist Alan S. Manoian & Ward 5 Councilor Leroy Walker for an informative, interesting and enjoyable early evening Historic Walking Tour of the New Auburn Neighborhood.

The Tour will begin at Rolly's, then along Mill Street, and up Second Street to Cook Street, then to Third Street up to Dunn Street and the magnificent 1915 St. Louis Church Building, then along Dunn Street over to Fourth Street & Fifth Street to Raymond Park, and back down South Main Street to Rolly's.

Along the Walk we will talk about various historic bakeries, shops, the old New Auburn Community Theatre, the Vincent Bottling Co., and also great historic family homes & architecture such as the Dupont House, the Provost House, and many more.

Let's join together on a beautiful summer evening for a memorable & meaningful walk along the historic and beautiful streets of a very special place known as New Auburn, Maine.

Sponsored by the United New Auburn Association, Inc.
