AUBURN ANNOUNCES DEPUTY FIRE CHIEF APPOINTMENT

AUBURN, ME. -- Auburn's Fire Chief, Geoffrey Low, has announced the appointment of Robert Chase of Rumford, Maine, to fill the role of Deputy Fire Chief effective January 2, 2018.

Robert, who is currently the Fire Chief in Rumford, has held the Chief's position for eight years. He's demonstrated outstanding commitment to the Fire Service profession and to the field of emergency medicine through his educational achievements and his career experience. He has a B.S. in Mechanical Engineering Technology from the University of Maine at Orono and is a certified Fire Officer and Fire Instructor.

Additionally, Robert is a Maine Emergency Medical Technician, serves on the Maine Fire Services Institute Advisory Board, and is involved with and trains for the Oxford County Incident Management and Hazardous Materials Team.

Robert's training, skills, experience and leadership should bring great value to the City of Auburn's public safety team and will best position the Auburn Fire Department to meet the many challenges it faces.
