Snowshoeing at Mt. Apatite with the Androscoggin Land Trust — The 300 acre Mount Apatite property is an historic mine site that was established in the early 1800's and for nearly 100 years semi-precious stones and minerals were mined there. Today people can enjoy the network of nearly 8 miles of trails!

Dana Little, current board member and long-time ALT and LA Trails volunteer will lead a moderate walk along Mt. Apatite's all-season trails with mild gradients. Snowshoers have the choice of doing an easy 1 mile loop or continuing on for a longer 2-3 mile loop.

Bring your snowshoes, water and a snack, dress warm and preferably in layers, and meet us at the Small Road entrance to the park, which is located off Hatch Road. The event will take place rain or shine and snow accumulations are not a factor. Contact Mike Auger 782-2302
