BURGLARY ARREST MADE AT WALLINGFORD APPLE ORCHARD

AUBURN, ME – On 11/09/16 at 12:30am, Auburn Police responded to an alarm activation at Wallingford Apple Orchard, 1240 Perkins Ridge Rd. Upon arrival, Officers and K9 Rocky discovered 39y/o Geary Bissonette of Auburn inside attempting to steal money out of a cash register. Bissonette was taken into custody without incident.

Auburn Police is investigating a series of burglaries that occurred at the orchard. Detectives had deployed a covert alarm system that Bissonette activated as he was breaking into the orchard's main building. Further investigation yielded enough information to charge Bissonette with two counts of Burglary. Bissonette was also charged with theft and criminal mischief as a result of today's arrest.

Bissonette is currently being held at the Androscoggin County Jail on $500 cash bail.
