ARRESTS MADE IN PROTEST

On August 28th, 2013 at approximately 6:45pm, Auburn Police encountered several protestors attempting to block the railroad tracks near Court St. Three protestors refused to leave the railroad tracks after being asked to do so. The three protestors were subsequently arrested for Criminal Trespass.

Arrested were:

67y/o Douglas Bowen of Porter, ME.

27y/o Meaghan Lasala of Portland, ME.

32y/o Jessica Dowling of Unity, ME.

All three subjects were transported to the Androscoggin County Jail where they were released on $300 unsecured bail. The subjects are scheduled to be arraigned in Lewiston District Court on October 16th, 2013.

Trains traveling through the area were not interrupted by the incident.
