

One Voice, Many Stories

WHO WE ARE MATTERS, especially when it comes to domestic violence. How a person identifies can impact the services and support they receive as a victim of abuse. Don't let identity be a barrier – help make our communities safer by making your support intersectional.

INTERSECTIONALITY is the idea that social categorizations, like race, class, and gender, are interconnected and cannot be examined separately from one another. This year Safe Voices will be exploring a different “intersection” or identity as it relates to domestic violence each week in October.

JOIN US FOR SAFE VOICES' ANNUAL DOMESTIC VIOLENCE MEMORIAL VIGIL, an event to honor those who have lost their lives to domestic violence, offer hope to those still facing abuse, and to support and celebrate ALL survivors.
