SHOOTING INVESTIGATION

Auburn Police are investigating a family dispute that left one man with a gunshot wound to the leg. At approximately 6:05am today, officers received notification that a male had driven himself to Central Maine Medical Center with a gunshot wound to the leg.

Preliminary investigation shows that 46y/o Scott Jordan of Auburn drove to 3000 Hotel Road where he got into an altercation with his step-brother, 43y/o David Strout. During the altercation, a handgun was discharged and Jordan was wounded in the leg.

This is an active investigation right now, no criminal charges have been filed as of yet.
