Thursday, June 12	10:00 AM – 12:00 PM	Free	L/A Arts -Exploring Soft Sculpture Guest Artist : Tom Jessen Presented in collaboration with L/A Arts When we think of traditional sculpture many of us picture public three dimensional pieces that live outside because of their size and materials like statues in stone, or even massive abstract works that are made of steel that can withstand diverse weather conditions. You might picture highly skilled busts in marble. What if we change the materials? There is a long history in the 20th century of changing the materials and making soft and malleable sculptures. Can you use a needle and thread? Then you are all set! No other experience is necessary. I materials supplied. Located at the Auburn Senior Community Center. Pre-registration is required. This is an in-house program, not for pick up and take home. Maximum 15
