We will head to Bolley's Famous Franks in Hallowell. They have outdoor picnic tables as well as indoor seating. You order at the counter (no table service). Bolley's Famous Franks is a family-owned fast casual restaurant. Their claim to fame is our "Bolleys' Famous Frank." It is a natural casing hot dog fried in peanut oil on a steamed bun with sautéed onions. They have fresh cut fries. Bolleys' onion rings, haddock, and chicken are hand breaded for each order. The quality of their food, camaraderie and service has sustained their famous name. It has been said that their famous hand cut homemade donuts are the best in the state. They are cooked fresh every morning. Most importantly the main ingredient to Bolleys is loyal customers old and new, which has given them the ability to continue to open their doors for over 50 years. We have stayed true to Bolley's tradition and recipes that Bolley himself taught us to do. It is what has kept us famous over the decades. Pre-registration is required. Minimum 6/Maximum 14

Wednesday, July 22	1:00 PM – 6:00 PM	$20 $22 non-residents	The Originals ACCOMPLICE at Saco River Theater Back By Popular Demand! Winner of the Mystery Writers of America's coveted Edgar award (the Oscar of crime and suspense) and written by Tony award-winner Rupert Holmes, ACCOMPLICE has thrilled audiences on Broadway, across the United States and around the world. The New York Times has called it "a deliciously witty cocktail of a whodunit with a maniacally seamless plot where skullduggery emerges the winner!" This theatrical roller coaster will trigger screams of laughter even as audiences vow to keep its secrets hush-hush. The story begins in Dartmoor, England at the stylish weekend retreat of the affluent Derek and Janet Taylor, and both adultery and murder are in the air. But we will soon learn that all is never as it seems in this electrifying game of trickery and misdirection. Who is the hunter and who the hunted...and precisely who is the title character of ACCOMPLICE? "The best fooler since Sleuth and twice as clever!" –LA Times "The comedy thriller of all comedy thrillers!" –LA Theatre & Entertainment Review

Friday, July 24	10:00 AM	$5.00	ASCC Summer Book Club The Calamity Club: A Novel by Kathryn Stockett Join us for a new summer read that was released on May 5th. The APL book club takes a break in the summer so we thought we would add one for you. Recreation is sponsoring a large part of the book price. "So immersive, exciting, and downright fabulous, you never want it to end."—Oprah Daily The multimillion-copy-selling author of The Help returns with a bold, big-hearted novel about a group of unbreakable women, fighting for what's rightfully theirs—and the power of friendship to change everything. "Pure, hell-raising entertainment."—The New York Times Book Review Oxford, Mississippi, 1933. Abandoned by her mother one Christmas Eve, eleven-year-old Meg Lefleur has learned the hard way to rely on no one. Now one of the unadoptable "big girls" at the Lafayette County Orphan Asylum, she fights each day to keep her spirit unbowed. Birdie Calhoun, unmarried and outspoken, has come to Oxford to ask her socialite sister to help the struggling family she's left behind. But as the Depression tightens its grip, Birdie discovers her sister's seemingly charmed life is a tapestry of lies. Then, Birdie encounters Charlie, a woman running low on luck with little left to lose. When their fates—and Meg's—converge, Charlie comes up with an audacious plan for them to take control of their lives. But in a place and time where hypocrisy is rife and women's freedom is fragile, even the smallest act of defiance can have dangerous consequences. The Calamity Club will make you laugh, cry, and cheer—an epic testament to underestimated women who know that calamity can be the spark of new beginnings. This is Kathryn Stockett at her most confident, heartfelt, and hilarious—the triumphant return of one of the most beloved storytellers of our time. This will be an onsite book club offered here at the senior center. Pre-registration is required. Minimum 6/Maximum 20

When New York novelist Stine is lured to Hollywood to adapt his detective stories for the silver screen, he trades the gritty East Coast for a land of perennial sunshine and palm trees. But the real drama happens

	(Show begins at 2pm)		off-page. The Tony Award-winning City of Angels seamlessly weaves between two worlds: the vivid Technicolor reality of 1940s Hollywood and the gritty, black-and-white film noir of Stine's imagination. As his fictional detective navigates a world of shadows, Stine faces his own dangerous temptations—sultry distractions, the hollow promise of fame, and the relentless pressure to compromise his art. Witty, glamorous, and atmospheric, this production features a sensational jazz score including “You Can Always Count on Me” and “I’m Nothing Without You.” Pre-registration is required. Minimum 6/Maximum 14. Thursday, July 30	8:00 AM – 9:30 AM	FREE	Coffee Talk with AARP – July 30 - Maine Affordable Housing Coalition This focus of this month's Coffee is Affordable Housing. The Maine Affordable Housing Coalition advocates for the creation and preservation of affordable housing so all people in Maine have a place to call home. At its core, affordable housing means a household can find a safe, stable place to live without sacrificing other essentials like food, health care, or transportation. A commonly accepted benchmark is that housing is affordable when it costs no more than 30% of a household's gross income. When families spend more than that, they are considered cost-burdened, and often face tough choices to make ends meet. Pre-registration required. Maximum 30.
